Order

This order will dispose of the proceedings initiated under Section 224(4) of the Companies Ordinance, 1984 (“Ordinance”) by the Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan (“Commission”) through Show Cause Notice No. S.M(B.O)C.O.222/ 9(1207)11 dated 17/05/2011 (“Notice”) issued to Mr. Muhammad Asim Tiwana (“Respondent”) a Director of Safe Mix Concrete Products Limited (“Issuer Company”).

2. The facts of the matter leading up to aforesaid Notice are that it was observed from the record of this office that the Issuer Company is a public listed company and the Respondent is on its Board of Directors. It was further observed that the Respondent beneficially owns equity securities of the Issuer Company. Thus, pursuant to provisions of Section 222(2)(b) of the Ordinance, he was required to file his return of beneficial ownership on prescribed form, within the stipulated time period. But, he failed to discharge his said obligation which attracts penal provisions contained in Section 224(4) of the Ordinance.

3. Section 222 of the Ordinance deals with the submission of statements by beneficial owners of listed securities. For convenience the provisions of the said Section are reproduced hereunder:-

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION OF PAKISTAN

- (2) The period within which the said return is to be submitted to the registrar and the Commission shall be—

- (d) where the Commission by an order so requires, within such period as may be specified in such order.

4. It is worth mentioning that in order to provide an opportunity to directors/beneficial owners of listed companies to file their over due returns of beneficial ownership without facing penal action, the Commission through Notices dated 07/09/2009 and 21/09/2010 asked them to file their returns of beneficial ownership with Head Office of the Commission by 31/10/2009 and 31/10/2010 respectively and to ensure timely compliance of Section 222 of the Ordinance in future. The aforesaid Notices were sent to all listed companies and were also disseminated through stock exchanges and print media.

5. As the Respondent failed to file his return of beneficial ownership, the Company Secretary of the Issuer Company was, therefore, asked vide letter dated 29/11/2010 to collect returns of beneficial ownership on Form 31/32 from the directors/beneficial owners of the Company including the Respondent alongwith reasons for non-filing of the same within the period stipulated in Section 222 of the Ordinance and to file the same with this office.

6. In response to aforementioned letter, the Respondent filed Form 31 with this Commission which shows that he is holding 1,052,474 shares (5.26% shareholding) of the Issuer Company. The said Form 31 further shows that he is on Board of Directors of the Company since its listing at Karachi Stock Exchange on 18/03/2010. Thus, he was required to file the said return with this Commission latest by 17/04/2010, but the same has been filed on 28/02/2011, with delay of 317 days, in contravention of Section 222(2)(b) of the Ordinance. The said default attracts penal provisions of Section 224(4) of the Ordinance, which provides as under:-

“Whoever knowingly and wilfully contravenes or otherwise fails to comply with any provision of section 222, section 223 or section 224 shall be liable to a fine which may extend to thirty thousand rupees and in the case of a continuing contravention, non-compliance or default to a further fine which may extend to one thousand rupees for every day after the first during which such contravention, non-compliance or default continues”.

7. The Commission accordingly took cognizance of the aforesaid default and issued Notice to the Respondent under Section 224(4) of the Ordinance, calling upon him to explain through written reply alongwith documentary evidence, if any as to why action may not be taken against him pursuant to Section 224(4) of the Ordinance, for aforesaid contravention of Section 222(2)(b) of the Ordinance. The written reply in this regard was submitted by Company Secretary of the Issuer Company vide letter dated 25/05/2011. He, on behalf of the Respondent, stated that:-

“I express my regret for late filing of the said documents and request you, keeping in view of the clean record for secretarial compliance that our company has had in the past and the fact that we have already submitted the documents twice which in itself is an evidence for our commitment to avoid any contravention of Companies Ordinance, 1984, to kindly waive the fine for continuing contravention and assure you that we will adhere to the all the applicable laws and regulations”

8. In order to provide him an opportunity of being heard in person, hearing in the matter was fixed for 02/06/2011 at Commission’s Karachi office. On the given date Mr. Wasiq Ilyas,

Company Secretary of the Issuer Company (“Authorized Representative”) appeared before me on behalf of the Respondent and made the following submissions:-

- (i) The under reference shareholding was one time acquisition by the Respondent and no subsequent purchases/sales have been made by him. The delay in submission of return of beneficial ownership was not willful, thus the same may be condoned.
- (ii) The Respondent will comply with the requirement of Section 222 of the Ordinance within the prescribed time period in future.

9. I have considered written submissions made on behalf of the Respondent as well as the verbal arguments advanced by the Authorized Representative during the course of personal hearing. The Respondent has admitted the default of late filing of the return of beneficial ownership with the contention that said default was not committed willfully and knowingly. The Respondent has assured for timely filing of the returns of beneficial ownership in future and requested to condone the default in question. In order to arrive at conclusion, I have also reviewed the available record which reveals that the Respondent has not made any purchase /sale transaction in the market. The record further signifies that the Respondent has filed the return promptly on receipt of letter from the Commission. Considering the arguments advanced on behalf of the Respondent, I intend to agree with the contention of the Respondent and of the view that the late filing of the under reference return of beneficial ownership may not be willful. Therefore, a lenient view of the matter has been taken and the Respondent is hereby strictly warned to ensure timely compliance of Section 222 of the Ordinance in future.

10. This order is issued without prejudice to any other action that the Commission/Registrar may initiate against the Respondent in accordance with the law on matter subsequently investigated or brought to the Notice of the Commission.
